

Thursday 29th September 2022

Church House, Dean's Yard,

Westminster SW1P 3NZ

AT-Autism

Conference  #ATAmentalhealth

Autism and Mental Health: who cares?

Learning from the lived experience of autistic people,
their families, and frontline professionals.

08.45 – 09.30	REGISTRATION
09.30 – 09.45	Dr Judith Gould and Dr Ruth Moyse Introduction and opening remarks
09.45 – 10.15	Alexis Quinn Inpatient care and autism: how to help
10.15 – 10.45	Dr Ian Davidson If people do care then why is change so slow?
10.45 – 10.55	Discussion
10.55 – 11.15	BREAK
11.15 – 11.45	Venessa Bobb Autism: cultural families perspective
11.45 – 12.15	Jon Adams Breaking the surface of those dark waters
12.15 – 12.30	Discussion/comfort break
12.30 – 13.00	Prof. Bernadette Grosjean Perspectives from both sides of the Looking-Glass from an autistic patient, educator, and psychiatrist
13.00 – 14.15	LUNCH
14.15 – 14.45	Jeremy Harris "...with all due respect Mr Harris." The impact of not listening to families
14.45 – 15.15	Prof. Digby Tantam, Sasha van Deurzen-Smith Changing perspectives of anxiety and autism
15.15 – 15.30	TEA
15.30 – 16.00	NHS group: Michael Karasinski, Liliana Mandal, Maria Oyegbile, Sakina Ramzan, Hannah Spreadbury-Troy Co-produced, co-delivered training: enhancing wellbeing for all?
16.00 – 16.15	Final plenary
16.15 – 16.30	Dr Georgia Pavlopoulou and chairs Summary main take-home/action points
16.30	END OF CONFERENCE